

K.R. (PG) COLLEGE, MATHURA

INTRODUCTION

The institution which was established in 1892 as a small Sanskrit pathshala, has emerged today as a glorified institute of District Mathura. It is the only educational institution which runs after the name of Thakur Shri Kishori Raman Ji Maharaj Virajman Mathura, and is functional in the name of a sacred temple. It has grown into six different educational institutes and aims at the intellectual and cultural development of society.

Kishori Raman P.G. College, was established in 1947 & is affiliated to Dr. Bhimrao Ambedkar University, Agra (Formerly Known as Agra University, Agra). At present, the College runs all the three streams in Arts, Commerce and Science and has achieved incessant success in all educational fields.

The College is situated in the peaceful surroundings near Mathura City. All the faculty members are well qualified and experienced and render dedicated services to the College. The College has been achieving commendable results only due to the personal attention and involvement of the faculty member to the students. The number of students in each class is usually restricted to limited seats so that personalized attention can be provided to the students.

All the laboratories in Science programme are well equipped with scientific equipment and well experienced and deserving teachers are appointed for the benefit of the students. The College has a big play ground in the campus and students are motivated to participate in sports and extra curricular activities. The college campus is established in 15-16 acres of land. It consists the infrastructure of Art, Commerce and Science, Reading rooms Library, Principal's residence & play ground & still enough land is available for any further extension or developments.
